

Course description ANO200004 – Jazyková cvičení norštiny I

Lecturer: Tone Vigrestad

Lectures: Mondays 14.10–15.45 or 15.50–17.25 in room 322 and Wednesdays 12.30–14.05 in room 319.

Syllabus: Ellingsen & Mac Donald (2017): Norsk på 1, 2, 3 + other material that will be distributed. The book will be shared with the student (on pdf files). If you get the book yourself, make sure you get the 2017 edition as this is very different from the last edition.

This is an introductory course to the Norwegian language. Basic structures of the language will be taught, and spoken and written exercises will be a central part of the course. When completing the course the student should have a basic Norwegian vocabulary and basic skills in Norwegian grammar.

Requirements:

- Participation in class.
- 80 % attendance (maximum absence: 5 classes).
- Submission of 6 out of 8 written assignments.
- One oral presentation.
- Passing of the written exam in January.

All of the above-mentioned requirements will have to be achieved for the student to pass the course.